

Web-based Sales

- Continuation of the “paperless” effort,
- As of April 2014, all licenses sales will be conducted via the internet; Department’s web sales system,
- Provides a more efficient and accurate system for capturing license sales,
- New system will allow for any license purchase to be printed at home.

Administrative Services Division

Timeline for Web-based Sales

- April 1, 2013: All license buyers, including successful special hunt licenses, can be printed at home.
- June, 2013: All private landowner elk and antelope licenses will be able to be printed at home.
- July, 2013: Department will release web-based sales to a subset of local vendors to sell all license types via the web-based sales system.
- April 1, 2014: All vendors will be issuing licenses via the web-based sales system.

Administrative Services Division

Questions, Thoughts,
Concerns?

Administrative Services Division