

Pronghorn Chihuahua Gould's New Mexico

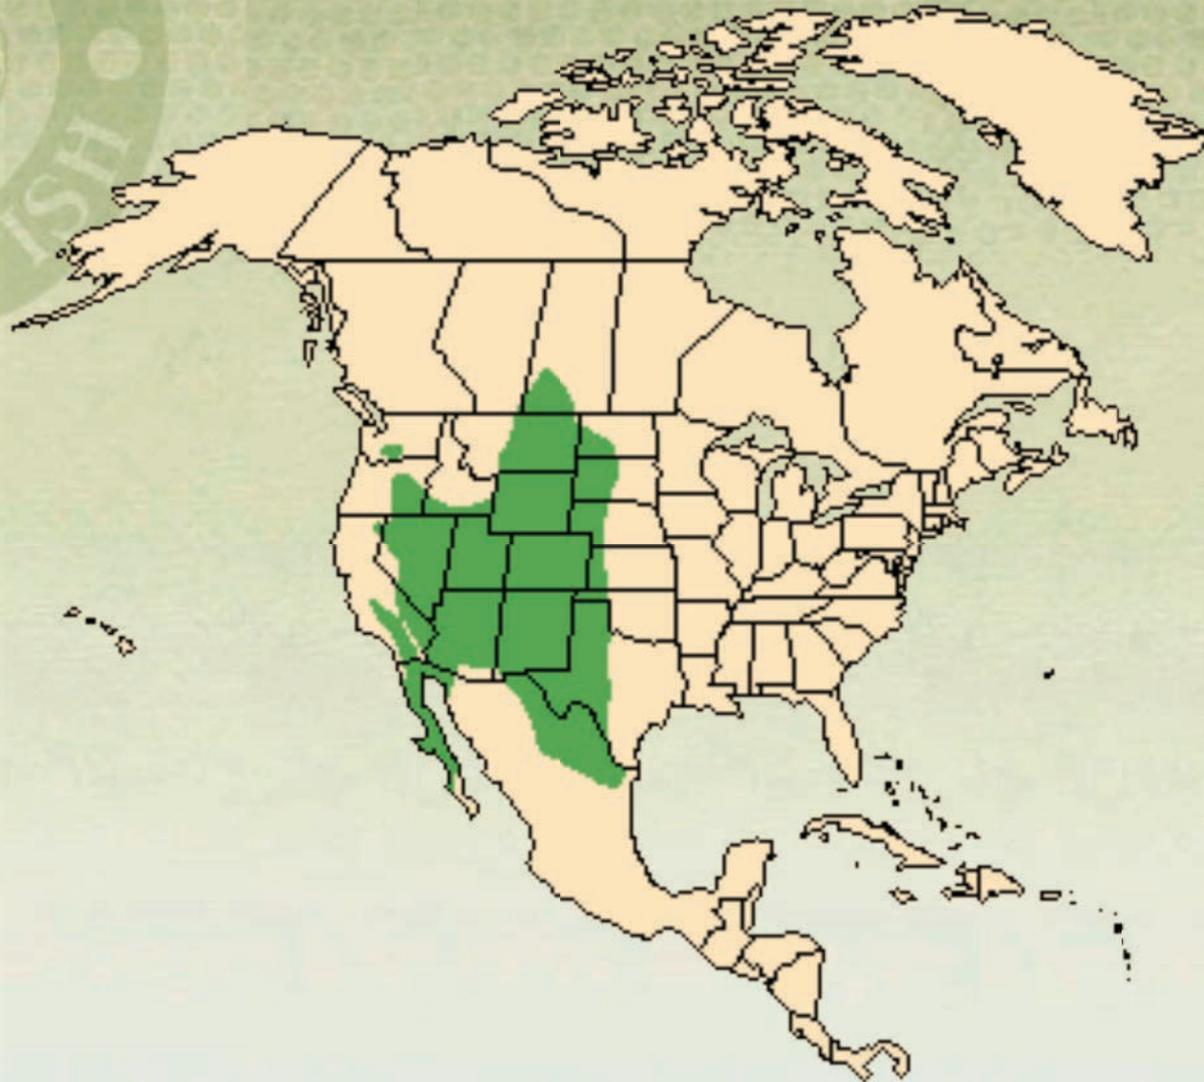

August 24, 2017

New Mexico State Game Commission Meeting
Albuquerque, NM

New Mexico Statewide Estimate 45,000 to 55,000

Pronghorn Habitat

Pronghorn Translocation

- 5 Translocations since 2010 to augment declining populations
- >450 pronghorn moved to various populations in Southeast and Central New Mexico

Pronghorn Translocation

- Mortality rates and capture myopathy remains very low
- Long-term survival very high
- Translocated pronghorn experience survival rates similar to residents in the population

Pronghorn Transfer

- 2009 and 2010 300 pronghorn moved from New Mexico to Mexico
 - Valle de Colombia
 - Rancho Pilares
 - Captive facility

Gould's Turkey Listing Background

- Listed as threatened under WCA in 1975.
- Limited habitat available in NM, but sufficient to maintain the species.
- Recent augmentations successful.

NM Gould's Turkey Distribution

Gould's Turkey Recovery Plan Contents

Maintain a total minimum population of 175 Gould's turkeys in the Peloncillo Mountains either through natural processes alone or in combination with periodic strategic augmentation.

Questions

Questions?

Wildlife Management Division

Pronghorn Translocation

Pronghorn Translocation

