

Sandia Mountain Bear Fair

Doc Long Picnic Area

Sunday, September 29, 2019

1 - 4 pm

$3 day-use fee required/correct change needed

Join the Sandia Mountain Bear Collaborative for this festive event which will feature lectures on living with Bears, and Bear behavior. Children's events and booths about wildlife from local organizations will be there!

*BRING CAMP CHAIRS,
SUNSCREEN AND WATER.*

SNACKS AVAILABLE WITH DONATION!

Talks about being Bear Aware and Research in the Sandia Mountains

Silent Auction!

For more information, visit SandiaMountainBearCollaborative.org or facebook.com/SandiaMountainBearCollaborative

Additional parking at Sulfur and Cienega trails

No Parking on Crest Road!

The Sandia Mountain Bear Collaborative is made up of local volunteers, community groups, and local, state, and federal agencies. Our mission is to better understand our black bear population, their corridors and range in the Sandia Mountains, and to educate the public about coexisting with these and other animals in our area

