

Riverview Ranch, Roswell, OG.138

Access Type: Hunting, Fishing.

GMU: 33

Hours: Hunting Access allowed from 2 hours before sunrise to 1:00 PM.

Fishing Access allowed from 30 minutes before sunrise to sunset.

Information: This property consists of 64 acres located in GMU 33, southeast of Roswell, NM off County Road 409. The ranch sits along the Pecos River in the Bottomless Lakes overflow and is predominantly covered by a mixture of brush and tall grasses along the river. It provides fishing access from one side of the river and sits across the bank from the Riverview Ranch Shooting Preserve, a fee hunting operation that stocks pheasant, quail, chukar and mallard ducks, for the operations clients. This property, along with the surrounding public lands, helps open most of the Bottomless Lakes overflow area to hunting and fishing. The Open Gate properties near Roswell, along the river, provide some of the only public fishing opportunities in the area.

Directions: Online mapping applications DO NOT provide valid directions to this property.

Road access is available through BLM and State Trust Lands. Take 409 South from Highway 380. From the southern intersection of Bottomless Lakes Road and NM 409 (Wichita Road), drive south on NM 409 for 3.25 miles. Enter the unmarked BLM road through the cattle guard approximately 100 yards off the highway to the west. You may notice a large BLM Overflow Wetlands sign on your left as you come across the cattleguard. Follow the roads shown on the Open Gate Boundary Map below. Park in the dirt parking area on the southern end of OG.138. Note that County Road 6 and other routes in the area travel through wetlands and are mostly impassable by vehicle.
