

New Mexico Department of Game and Fish

Training required for state endangered species permitting

Contact DGF.Permits@dgf.nm.gov for details

Training on species biology and survey methods is required for permittees and subpermittees prior to permit authorization for the following species:

Dunes Sagebrush Lizard (Sceloporus arenicolus)

In development, may refer to CEHMM

Jemez Mountain Salamander (Plethodon neomexicanus)

Survey training provided by USFWS Albuquerque Ecological Services Office

Chiricahua Leopard Frog: Survey training provided by USFWS Albuquerque or Tucson Ecological Services Office

Northern Mexican and Narrow-headed Gartersnakes:

Survey training provided by USFWS Albuquerque or Tucson Ecological Services Office