

New Mexico Department of Game and Fish
Training required for state endangered species permitting

Contact DGF.Permits@state.nm.us for details

Training on species biology and survey methods is required for permittees and subpermittees prior to permit authorization for the following species:

Dunes Sagebrush Lizard (Sceloporus arenicolus)
Two-day training in late April/early May annually

Jemez Mountain Salamander (Plethodon neomexicanus)
Training in development;